

Musical Theatre

In this unit of work you will be taking part in your very own class version of 'We are revolting children' from the Matilda Musical. For this you will be learning the words to this song by heart along with creating your own choreography that you can rehearse and perform as a class. Furthermore, there will be opportunities for solo choreography and vocals in this piece of music.

