

Rights and Responsibilities

PSHE Year 8 Autumn 1

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

Overview:

- Understand about human rights
- Consider the responsibilities that go along with the rights that we have.
- Think about conflicting rights and how different peoples' rights might be impacted.

What are my rights?

What are my responsibilities?

With every right that I have, I have to consider the responsibilities that go with each one.

This is part of living as part of a community.

In some situations, we have to balance the rights of one individual or group with the rights of another. This is called "conflicting rights". We have to think about how to keep people safe and healthy, and balance the rights of others. This requires compromise!
